PARASHAT SHEMOT 1.1 - 6.1

Moses - Chosen to Lead

Jacob's descendants remained in Egypt for many years. Multiplying greatly, the Egyptians feared and enslaved them. Pharaoh ordered Hebrew midwives to kill their sons at birth. They disobeyed. From the tribe of Levy, Amram and Yochebed married and conceived a son. She hid him for three months, then set him in a wicker basket, placed it in the reeds near the Nile. Sister Miriam watched from a safe distance. Pharaoh's daughter found him and had pity on the crying boy. Knowing it must be a Hebrew child, Miriam suggested a nurse for the child. When the child grew up he was brought to Pharaoh's daughter who made him her son. She called him Moses for she "drew him out of the water."

This Parashat also includes his killing a taskmaster, fleeing to Midian, marrying Zipporah, the burning Bush, knowing G-d, introductions to Pharaoh for freedom!

HAFTARAT SHEMOT ISAIAH

PARASHAT TERUMAH 25.1 - 27.19

Moses on Mt. Sinai

During the forty days on the mountain, G-d instructs Moses on how to build the Tabernacle - the furnishings - Ark of the Covenant, Menorah and Altar. Each item is given in detail, to the cubit measurements, the colors, the fabrics and metals of gold, silver and copper.

HAFTARAT I KINGS 5.26 - 6.13

King Solomon and Hiram of Lebanon became friends - making a treaty. Hiram was to help Solomon build the House of the Lord. All was ready the four hundred and eightieth year after the Israelites left Egypt - in the fourth year of Solomon's reign as king of Israel.
